

Psalm 2

Why do the nations unite in conspiracy and their people form intrigues?
They gather together against God and the Messiah.
“Let us break the bonds of religion and the constrictions of morality”.

God laughs at them, secure in heavenly rule.
With righteousness God replies,
announcing with determination,
“I have established my kingdom”.
Proclaim the decree of the Lord,
“Today I have become as a Father to my people.
If they ask it, they will rule the nations,
even to the ends of the earth”.

So, be wise all you nations,
and be warned all you leaders.
Seek to serve God, and quieten your excitement.
Accept and honour the Messiah and be blessed for your trust.
